The Naples-Pelican Bay Rotary Club is pleased to announce that William Boyajian of Port Royal Jewelers is sponsoring a sidewalk square and offering a specially designed piece of jewelry to be raffled off at the all-day Chalk Art 2014 event. Port Royal Jewelers is donating 100% of the raffle proceeds to The Sunshine Kids, a non-profit organization dedicated to children with cancer. Chalk Art 2014, the organization's annual street painting extravaganza, will be held on Saturday, January 25, on 5th Avenue South, 8:00am - 5:00pm

Ms. Janet Yon, an active volunteer of The Sunshine Kids states, "We are thrilled with Port Royal Jewelers continued involvement and generosity." Fundraising efforts help support a variety of positive events that provide joy and emotional support to the young cancer patients.

Benefiting several local Collier County charities and the Pelican Bay Rotary Scholarship Fund for local students, the popular event is free to the public. Matt Nolton and Mike Richardson, Co-Chairs of Chalk Art 2014 expect thousands of spectators to come "walk the chalk" and observe individuals and teams of amateur and professional artists transform 5th Avenue into a colorful, half-mile long concrete canvas. The rain date is Sunday January 26th.

Businesses, charitable organizations or individuals interested in sponsoring a square or have an artist who might like to participate should contact the Chalk Art 2014 Co-Chairman, Mr. Mike Richardson, mail completed form & check: 6027 Hollow Drive, Naples, Florida 34112 or scan & email (mrichardson@calusa-construction.com (<mailto:mrichardson@calusa-construction.com>)). Registrations for sponsors and artists will be accepted through January 18, 2014.
